Osamu Tagaya

Iain Ngui

The son of a former officer in the Japanese Naval Air Technical Arsenal, OSAMU TAGAYA has written a number of books on Japanese aircraft, principally for the Smithsonian Institute. Residing in Surrey, England, for many years, the author has recently returned to his native California. Osamu Tagaya is presently working on a volume on the Aichi D3A Navy Type 99 Carrier Bomber Model 11, known as the 'Val' under the Allied Code Name System. This is scheduled to appear in the Combat Aircraft series in the summer of 2002.
